

New Jersey's "Do Not Call List" needs to stay the way it is because it is getting the job done. People sign up not to be called, not so they can be considered an exemption. Leave the law alone to let it do exactly what it was put in place for.